

The Goodstock Project: “Royal Pontoon”

A song about how searching for a partner in the modern world is like gambling - with the odds stacked well against:

‘It's Russian roulette, but everyone else has bailed’

‘Can't you see this board is all snakes?
And the ladders here are clearly all just fakes’

‘Do you always aim for 21
But always end up sticking on 17?
Yeah well don't wait for just anyone
I can tell you what you're currently looking for isn't real’

The Goodstock Project are an indie rock band, comprising 4 songwriters, from South Manchester. “Royal Pontoon” is their second release of 2024, hot on the heels of “Demands of Reality”, and follows an amazing 2023 for the band which saw the release of 3 tunes from their debut EP, “Remote”, as well as an epic, luxurious single called “Everything I Need To Know” and a cover version of “Bring It On Home To Me” by Sam Cooke, the video for which was licensed by the great man’s record label.

Many more grooves and soaring choruses to come, and maybe even some live shows - please keep an eye on The Goodstock Project!
